Language: Urdu
ACADEMIC COURSE OUTLINE

YEAR & SEMESTER	COURSE CODE	PREREQUISITES
Year 1 Semester 01	URD-01	None
Year 1 Semester 02	URD-02	URD-01
Year 2 Semester 03	URD-03	URD-02
Year 2 Semester 04	URD-04	URD-03
Year 3 Semester 05	URD-05	URD-04
Year 3 Semester 06	URD-06	URD-05

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Urdu is the language of the writings of the Promised Messiah[as] and his successors whose books and sermons are the rich source of knowledge for Ahmadi Muslims. The Urdu Language Course series offers a comprehensive progression from beginner to advanced levels. Beginning with foundational listening, speaking, and script introduction, it advances to intermediate levels focusing on reading, listening, and speaking skills. The advanced stage explores poetry, linguistic nuances, and religious terminology from the writings of the Holy Founder and his successors, enriching linguistic and cultural understanding.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:
- Communicate effectively in Urdu.
- Read the books of the Promised Messiah[as] and Urdu literature of the Jamā'at.
- Demonstrate listening and speaking proficiency, integrating real-life interaction and everyday topics in Urdu.
- Acquire foundational language rules and a vital vocabulary, including religious terminology, for continued religious studies.
- Enhance reading, listening, and speaking using authentic texts and grammar rules.
- Explore poetry and writings for linguistic, historical, and theological insights. Master reading, writing, speaking, and listening skills. Study prose and poetry genres.

COURSE OVERVIEW

- Urdu Text Books: The curriculum is offered according to the level of the students
- Urdu Grammar Book
- Creative Writing, Dictation, & Extempore Speeches
- Friday Sermons in Urdu and Other Supplementary Resources

LEARNING DELIVERY FORMAT & REQUIRED EQUIPMENT

- Online Learning
- Laptop or desktop computer with functional microphone and webcam