

Islamic Teachings - Ḥadīth ACADEMIC COURSE OUTLINE

| YEAR & SEMESTER | COURSE CODE | PREREQUISITES |
|--------------------|-------------|---------------|
| Year 1 Semester 01 | ITH01 | None |
| Year 2 Semester 03 | ITH03 | ITH01 |
| Year 3 Semester 05 | ITH05 | ITH03 |

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Ahadīth are the collection of the sayings, actions, and approvals of the Holy Prophet Muhammad^{sa} serving as a crucial source of guidance and wisdom for Muslims. This course aims to familiarize students with the teachings of the Prophet^{sa} as it aims to developing an in-depth introduction to the science of hadīth (tradition), focusing on its terminology, foundational texts, and methodologies. Students will explore the significance of Ḥadīth as the second source of Islamic Legislation, complementing and elucidating the teachings of the Holy Qur'ān.

The curriculum covers various aspects of the science of Ḥadīth, including terminology, prominent books, the lives of narrators, the etiquettes of narration, the conditions for transmitting knowledge, methodologies, modes of delivery, and associated peripheral issues. Through this exploration, students will gain a comprehensive understanding of the rigorous process behind authenticating and interpreting Ahadīth.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

- read, translate, and interpret essential ahadīth in both Arabic and English.
- develop a deeper appreciation and understanding of the role of ahadīth as complementary to the teachings of the Holy Qur'ān.
- demonstrate understanding of the methodologies and significance of Ḥadīth as a source of guidance and wisdom for their personal and spiritual development.

COURSE OVERVIEW

- Hadiqa-tus-Saliheen
- Gardens of Righteous
- Translating selected ahadīth from Arabic to English.
- Discussions and analysis of the meanings and context of the ahadīth.

LEARNING DELIVERY FORMAT & REQUIRED EQUIPMENT

- Online Learning
- Laptop or desktop computer with functional microphone