HOW TO MAKE ALLAH YOUR FRIEND

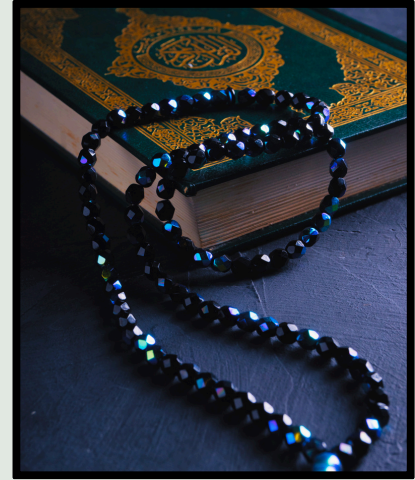

"Allah is the friend of believers"

The Holy Qur'an, [3:69]

الْوَالِيَّ

A very important attribute of Allah is "Al-Waliyy", meaning The Protector or The Friend. In our lives, we should make Allah our greatest and most dear friend.

There are many ways to make Allah our friend and the best way to do this is to communicate with Him through our five daily prayers. This is our chance to talk to Allah, tell him about our problems, and ask him for guidance and protection. Throughout the day, we should talk to Allah and constantly be connected to Him. We should also encourage our children to be in constant communication with Allah. The Holy Qur'an should act as our guiding light to understand the commandments of Allah.

The Promised Messiah (as) has said:

"Worship Allah, offer Salat, ask for His mercy, follow His commandments. We find all these teachings in the Holy Qur'an. Study the Holy Qur'an and try your best to abide by its teachings. If you want to gain nearness to Allah, this is the only way to acquire it."

Friday Sermon delivered by Khalifatul Masiḥ V (aa) on April 9, 2004

We should start and end each day with the name of Allah. If we hold fast to the rope of Allah, He will stay connected with us. We cannot be successful until we make Allah our Waliyy, our Friend.

These included an exhibition, youth debates and seminars which explored diverse topics such as cybersecurity, the existence of aliens, and even had a session to teach CPR. The Ijtema also hosted a fun zone which featured a rock climbing wall, horse buggy, archery and more!

To promote and attract more students to our 'Aisha Academy Canada programs and courses, we set up a stall at the Ijtema. Numerous women visited to gather information about the available courses. Additionally, we offered promotional merchandise for sale including t-shirts, tote bags, pins, notebooks, and more.
