COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Holy Prophet^{saw} is reported to have said that the Promised Messiah^{as} would distribute wealth in such abundance that nobody would (be left to) accept it. (Sahih al-Bukhari, Kitab Ahadith al-Anbiya, Hadith 3448). This “wealth” refers to the spiritual insights the Messiah would give to the world. ‘Malfuzat’ is written records of the public conversations of the Promised Messiah^{as} in a question-and-answer format and is the easiest way to understand his books. Malfuzat refers to the sacred and insightful sayings of the Founder of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, the Promised Messiah and Mahdi, spoken at various times to guide his followers in their spiritual and moral development. These words aimed to help them build a living relationship with God, deepen their understanding of the Holy Quran, revive the true spirit of Islam, and uphold the Shariah of the Holy Prophet Muhammad^{saw}. As far as the moral training and the reformation of one’s inner self is concerned, Malfuzat is the greatest treasure. Moreover, these words of the Promised Messiah^{as} were spoken by him mostly in such settings when he had the education and training of the community in view. This course aims to unravel the depth and significance of the Malfuzat, providing a profound understanding of the spiritual teachings and insights imparted by the Promised Messiah^{as}, fostering spiritual enlightenment and moral elevation among its participants.
